Robert L. Ingram, Jr., CPA/PFS, CGMA, CFP®
Shareholder/Executive Committee
International Practice Group Leader

Professional Overview

In January 2014 as part of a merger, Bobby became a shareholder and executive committee member of JamisonMoneyFarmer PC. He leads our International Practice Group, with a special emphasis on Germany and other Western European countries who make foreign direct investments in the United States. Bobby also serves a diverse array of partnerships and corporate clients, high-wealth individuals and corporate executives. Prior to joining JMF, he had fifteen years with his own firm and another dozen years with two different global Big Four accounting firms.

In addition to his extensive work obligations, Bobby gives back to his community serving on many area philanthropic, educational and church boards of directors, including serving on the executive committee of the AlabamaGermany Partnership as Secretary. He is also a Past President of Black Warrior Council of the Boy Scouts of America.
