

Lessons Learned from Listening to Survivors: One Hour Webinar

Presenter:

Sara Larson

Executive Director of Awake

Many Catholics are aware of the issue of sexual abuse in our Church and want to contribute to transformation and healing in the Body of Christ, but few have an opportunity to speak directly with survivors. This event is your opportunity to learn about this topic with an expert who has listened to the stories of hundreds of abuse survivors and accompanied many of these amazing men and women on a journey towards healing.

Join The Office for Child and Youth Protection for a free one-hour webinar with Sara Larson from the national Catholic non-profit organization Awake. Awake is a community of abuse survivors, concerned Catholics, and allies committed to awakening, transformation, and healing from the wounds of sexual abuse in the Catholic Church.
