

Volunteer Spotlight on Meghan Perry

We would like to thank Meghan for all of her time that she gives to help our school and community. Meghan has served as a room mom for several years and is the chair of the Staff/Faculty Back to School Luncheon. Additionally Meghan can be counted on to volunteer at various school events.

We asked Meghan some questions to get to know her better:

Why do you volunteer at our school?

I love being at the school to help our school community, staff, and teachers. It's takes a village that's for sure!

What's your favorite part of being a volunteer?

Being able to see my kids and their friends. And all the smiles!

One thing that would surprise someone to learn about me....

I knew I was going to marry my husband the minute I shook his hand.

What is your favorite thing about OLMC school?

How everyone is so quick to help out each other
