

Volunteer Spotlight on Ann Heilman

We would like to thank Ann for all of her time that she gives to help our school and community. Ann is and has been our PTO Book Fair Chair for 4 years. She spends countless coordinating, setting up and staffing our book fair in the fall and spring each year. She is also an active member of the pro-life committee. We asked Ann some questions to get to know her better:

Why do you volunteer at our school? I enjoy the sense of community I feel when I am working with the wonderful students, staff, and other parents.

What's your favorite part of being a volunteer? Spending time with the kids.

Do you have a favorite or funny memory from volunteering? The way it seems at every book fair we are about to run out of one dollar bills and then all of a sudden some kid will show up with a fistful of crumpled up one dollar bills to buy a book and save the day.

One thing that would surprise someone to learn about me is....I was once a Lifeline on the TV show Who Wants to be a Millionaire?

What is your favorite thing about OLMC school? How Catholic it is

Ann's Spouse: Mark

Ann's Kids: Tony age 10 – 4th grade at OLMC, Matthew age 18 – freshman at Notre Dame

Ann's hobbies/interests: Telling science jokes, golf, and taking long walks.

Ann's Favorite Food: Soft serve chocolate ice cream

Ann's Favorite Band: Jars of Clay

Ann's Favorite Movie and TV show: All of the Lord of the Rings; The Mandalorian

Ann's Pet(s): We have two fish, Goldie and Pumpkin

If Ann could travel anywhere where would she go: Jerusalem

Life Advice Ann would give: Listening to someone means not judging or giving advice or fixing things for someone. It means just listening.

Ann's Favorite Inspirational Quote: Life is Good!

Ann's Favorite Bible Verse: the entire Chapter 11 from the Letter to Hebrews. It starts with the line "Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen..."

"Many hands make light work" – THANK YOU Ann for being part of the many hands at OLMC!
We appreciate you!
