

Sunseeker Resort Announces Plans to Open Aileron Golf Club

Hotel guest exclusive 18-hole championship course debuts in 2023

Sunseeker Resort Charlotte Harbor is set to bring more than just traditional resort style amenities to Southwest Florida's Gulf Coast. The highly anticipated resort reveals plans for a private championship level, Par 72, 18-hole golf course, Aileron Golf Club. Coinciding with the opening of Sunseeker Resort Charlotte Harbor, Aileron is set to debut and welcome hotel guests in 2023.

Designed by renowned golf course architect and former collegiate golfer Kipp Schulties, Aileron Golf Club will offer Sunseeker guests the ultimate resort-level golf experience. The private course exclusive to hotel patrons only, will feature five different teeing selections on every hole, providing golfers with options of play from 5,000 yards to over 7,000 yards.

The newly imagined golf club will boast a full-service pro-shop, an 10,000-square-foot luxe clubhouse complete with a restaurant, bar and a retail area offering Aileron merchandise that is only available for purchase at the course. Golfers will also enjoy the use of state-of-the-art lithium-ion golf carts with PACE technology GOLFLOGIX, that includes GPS distances and 3D heat maps of the greens.

"There has been a significant investment by Sunseeker Resorts to design and develop an exclusive resort championship-level golf experience that is sure to exceed our guest expectations," says Jason Shkorupa, Vice President of Food & Beverage, Golf and Resort Development. "From the newly imagined clubhouse, bar, restaurant, and pro-shop, surrounded by our pristine grounds and lush landscaping, we believe Aileron will be an amenity that our leisure travelers and business groups will thoroughly enjoy. Our creative and talented design & development teams have done a fantastic job, and we cannot wait to unveil Aileron Golf Club to our guests."

Home to year-round sun, lush landscapes and exquisite scenery, Aileron Golf Club will also be equipped with a full-service restaurant and bar on property. The inspiration behind the naming of Aileron pays tribute to Sunseeker's parent company Allegiant Travel. French for "Little Wing", an Aileron is the trailing edge of an aircraft wing, which helps stabilize and steer planes during flight. Similar to its name, this new world-class course will guide golfers to new limits.

With over 60-yards of sand bunker practice space, a driving range, short game practice greens with shot selections from 10-60 yards, golfers can perfect their game while enjoying all the amenities Sunseeker Resort has to offer including a state-of-the-art 7,100-square-foot fitness center and a full-service spa and salon as well as two pools including a 117,000-square-foot ground-level experience and an adults-only rooftop retreat.

The resort will also feature 60,000-square-feet of combined convention space with top-of-the-line features, including two ballrooms fully equipped with high-tech equipment. Boasting a variety of global cuisines and robust wine programs intended to satisfy any and every craving, Sunseeker Resort will house 20 wholly owned and branded food & beverage concepts including seven restaurant destinations, 11 bar areas and a 25,000-square-foot multi-dining venue.
