It's official,
our NEW WEBSITE has been launched!

Visit SandStarRemodeling.com

As another highlight for our 40th Anniversary this year, we are excited to announce the release of our newly "renovated" website.

We tore down the old site and rebuilt from the ground up!
SandStarRemodeling.com has been given a fresh look with the

Monthly Highlight:
Inside the Design Studio

---

Photos from a fantastic Color Session at our Design Studio - this is when the fun really starts during the homebuilding process! We spend a entire day with our clients selecting all the finishes going into every space of their custom home. These can include cabinetry, countertops, flooring, tile for backsplashes and accents, door and cabinet hardware, paint colors, plumbing fixtures, and much more!

---

Although it is one of the most exciting steps, there are many design decisions to make than can easily make your head spin. But whether you know exactly what you want or have no idea where to begin, as a custom builder we have a team of talented designers and a plethora of samples and tools at our studio to to help break down the decision-making process into manageable steps. We're with you every step of the way. ❤️

Cabinetry: Framed or Frameless?

When remodeling or building a home, the style of the kitchen cabinetry is one of the most important decisions and investments you will make. Cabinetry is one of the first elements family and guests notice about your home and has a huge impact on the appeal and overall feel.

With an endless array of options and trends to discover these days, it can be a little overwhelming. One of the first and most important decisions you should make is whether you would prefer framed or frameless cabinetry, which can help provide a base for functional need over design style.

Click below to read an article from the Wellborn Cabinet Blog to learn more about each style, including the key differences and unique advantages, which can help in your decision as to whether framed or frameless cabinets are best for you.
