

Branson Country USA

SEPTEMBER 19, 2025

ALLEN ASBURY - CLAY COOPER COUNTRY EXPRESS

Before signing a recording contract with Doxology Record Company in the year 2000, Asbury had portrayed the part of Simon Peter in the award winning production "The Promise and His Life" in Glenrose, TX and Branson, MO.

Since then, Allen has played the role of Simon Peter over 3000 times at venues such as Russia at the Kremlin State Palace, in South Korea at the Olympic stadium, in New York City, as well as churches and arenas across the USA. Allen also played the role of Joseph in the Broadway style musical, "Two From Galilee." Allen is passionate about ministry in music and has been versatile in the opportunities that have been given him. He now has had four number one hits and seven top ten songs on Christian radio.

With his smash recording, "Somebody's Praying Me Through" becoming The Presidential Prayer Team's theme song in 2003 and the National Day Of Prayer theme song for 2003.

Allen resides in Branson, MO where he has been active in the music community in Branson. Allen has performed in several productions at Silver Dollar City as well as the Gospel show, Oh Happy Day. Allen is honored to be currently performing in the Clay Cooper show and he is serving as Minister Of Music at Grace Community Assembly in Branson, MO.

Allen Asbury is married to Heidi Coates Asbury. They have two beautiful children, Tegan & Tensley.

You can check their schedule or get more information by calling Clay's Box Office: 417-337-7123, or visit ClayCooper.com.