EMALEE FLATNESS - SILVER DOLLAR CITY

Emalee Flatness is an Ozarks singer and musician who grew up in Willard, Missouri, but now resides in Ridgedale, Missouri.

She is dedicated to the preservation of traditional music associated with the Ozarks region, including old-time and classic country. She is a recent graduate of Missouri State University, with a degree in history, and a minor in Ozark studies.

Emalee plays with the Springfield based Honkytonk Renovators, acts in the Shepherd of the Hills Outdoor Drama, and is beginning a full time position with the Homestead Pickers at Silver Dollar City in November of 2023.

When she is not performing, she enjoys spending time with her husband Jacob and their dog Maggie.
