Private sessions are conducted by Phone, Skype, or Zoom and time slots may be scheduled based on preference and schedule availability. There are several time slots available and scheduling is not typically an issue. In-person sessions are available (if we are in the same local area at the time of your scheduled session). All sessions include the foundational spiritual principles of A Course in Miracles, along with Prayer, EFT (Emotional Freedom Techniques), the Source Technique™, Guided Meditation, Visualization, Hypnotherapy, and other non-invasive modalities, as needed. Having a Personal Mentor is one of the quickest ways to advance on your spiritual path, find and release the obstacles that are blocking you, and gain tools and insight from an experienced coach that will accelerate the process. The Private Mentoring Program is designed for those who are committed to freeing themselves from negative thoughts, life-long patterns, habits, and behaviors through Guidance from Holy Spirit, and insight, encouragement, and dedicated support from your Personal Mentor.

This Program is especially helpful for those who are willing to commit to a daily spiritual practice of prayer, meditation, and listening for/to Higher Guidance as a means of strengthening your spiritual core. You will learn how to establish or refine this practice (in the Private Mentoring Program) if you do not already have one. Your daily practice is not as much about time as it is consistency. A consistent practice will bring consistency in results.

We will create a customized action plan to move you forward in the quickest possible way, including a personal inventory, beliefs worksheet, helpful homework exercises, and other tools, audio prayers, support, and guided meditations with Spirit to help you gain momentum. Your Personal Mentor will lead you step-by-step through the process and point out areas where you might be tempted to sabotage yourself so you can avoid them.

This program is designed to offer sufficient time to deeply explore and neutralize what is hurting or holding you back in all areas of life – and move you towards:

- A greater connection with Higher Consciousness through guided meditation and dialogue
- A deep sense of “unshakable” peace and core-strength to help you move through any challenge
- A practical approach with handy tools to help you move through life challenges more easily
- Removal of obstacles keeping you from the experience of love and harmony in your relationships
- Being equipped with a new powerful response to life’s issues, problems, and challenges
- A greater sense of safety, direction, clarity, purpose, and confidence, through learning to rely on the Higher Wisdom of your Inner Guide
- Freedom from negative thoughts, fears, patterns, judgments & behaviors through practice
- Ultimately, leading you to greater happiness, confidence, and awareness of your “True Self” in Oneness with Spirit/God; the Creator, Source, and Unlimited Supply of All in All
