

New Enterprise Church of the Brethren October 2021

Pastor's Pen

Perhaps you've noticed Pastor Marlys sporting her new fashion accessory—Well, not really. Her wrist is broken and she is stuck with a cast for a few weeks. This makes every day tasks like typing cumbersome and awkward. In light of that, she's going to take a temporary break (no pun intended) this month from the Pastor's Pen. But she'll be back next month. In the meantime we'll highlight our latest outreach project: Chaotic Fun Nite!

Chaotic FUN Nite!

On Wednesday, September 15th, the very first Chaotic Fun Nite was held outside here at the New Enterprise COB. The evening started with a puzzle hunt. 16 bags with 3 puzzle pieces in each bag were hidden all around the yard, pavilion, bar-b-que pit, and back of the office building. Kids had to find all 16 bags and then work together to put the puzzle together. (The box was hidden so they didn't know what picture they were making.)

The verse and theme for the night was Ecclesiastes 4:9. After the puzzle was completed, the kids celebrated by making and eating S'mores around the campfire.

“Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their work...

ECC. 4:9, NIV

Letters from the Library

Dewey

The Small-Town Library Cat Who Touched the World

By Vicki Myron

A lot of us would call ourselves "pet lovers" and we hope that our pets would say the same about us. We could probably say that we had at least one pet that was special. Maybe they understood us a bit more than other pets. Maybe it seemed they loved us in almost human ways. Or maybe tolerated us in spite of anything we did or didn't do. At any rate, they made our world a better place in which to live.

Dewey was stuffed into the Spencer Public Library book slot on a cold night. He was found by the director of the library by Vicki Myron the next morning. Against the odds, Dewey "paid back" the kindness shown by the library staff at least "tenfold". He became the library's mascot as "Dewey Readmore Books" and everyone's special cat.

As with all pets, they cannot live forever and must then pass on to new horizons. I like to think that there is a place in God's Heaven where our pets live until we can join them. They have served their purpose with us while here on earth. They will always hold a special place in our hearts.

Dewey's purpose for Vicki is explained in the last paragraph of the book..."The most important thing (in life) is having someone there to scoop you up, to hold you tight, and to tell you everything is all right. For years, I thought I had done that for Dewey. I thought that was my story to tell. And I had done that. When Dewey was hurt, cold, and crying, I was there. I held him. I made sure everything was all right. But that's only a sliver of the truth. The real truth is that for all those years, on the hard days, the good days, and all the unremembered days that make up the pages of the real book of our lives, Dewey was holding me. He's still holding me now. So thank you, Dewey. Thank you. Wherever you are."

Yes, you will cry while reading this book, but you will also feel love. Enjoy.

~ Jeffie Singo, Church Librarian

ONGOING PRAYER NEEDS AS LISTED ON THE BULLETIN

We'll soon begin to revisit the ongoing prayer needs, as listed on the back of the bulletin, on a monthly basis. The goal is to use the bulletin to list current special needs.

An "Ongoing" prayer needs list will be kept in the church office. The names on this list would be people who are facing a long-term situation. When a name has been removed from the back of the bulletin, it will be placed on the ongoing needs list and that list will be cared for by the pastor & deacons. Any time a person has a special need or is in a crisis situation, we will list them again for a time on the back of the bulletin.

We encourage people to keep us up-to-date regarding ongoing prayer needs. Please contact the pastor or church office with changes or additions.

Thank you for your helping us keep a current list.

On September 22nd, the theme was “Slime Laboratory.” The evening began with a very scientific experiment known as “Elephant Toothpaste” showing the reaction that takes place when mixing different elements. After that, adult volunteers stoically manned 2 different slime stations and kids got to make samples of each to take home and drive their parents nuts with. The verse for the night was Philippians 1:9.

“I pray that your love will overflow more & more and that you will keep on growing in knowledge and understanding.”
Philippians 1:9, ISV

What IS Chaotic Fun Nite, you ask? It's a time where kids ages 4 thru 5th grade are invited to come and have a good time. We love to see our neighbors from here in town and its so much fun to spend time together. We don't care where you live or where you go or don't go to church. If you're a kid in that age bracket, you're invited! We've only got one question for kids who come to join us: Want to have FUN??
