CREATIVE JOBS FOR CREATIVE TEENS

October 15, 2020

For Immediate Release:

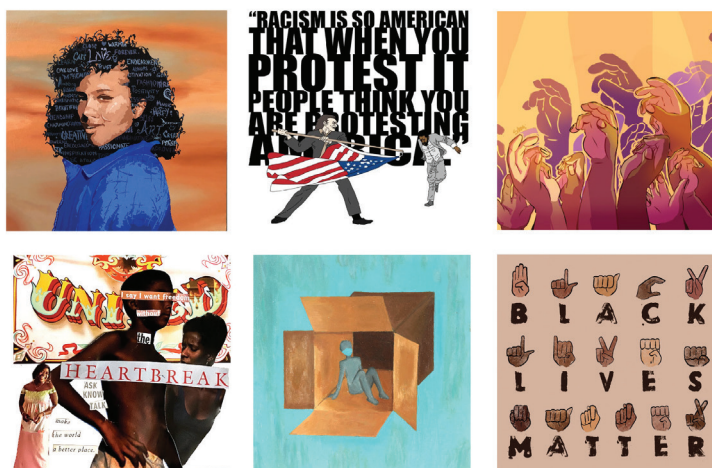

This Is Now!

An Art Projection Series

October 23-24-25/2020 in Uphams Corner, Nubian Square, Jamaica Plain.

Over three consecutive evenings of inspired art, projected on well-known Boston landmarks—the talent, feelings and concerns of Artists For Humanity painters, designers, photographers and animators will be shared for all to see! Our “intersectional” times call for our teen voices to be raised in response. A pandemic, the killings of George Floyd, Breonna Taylor and too many other Black people at the hands of police, voter suppression, and renewed calls for the end to systemic racism deserve our response—projected on the walls of our city. These issues affect us today, and tomorrow. We have something to say about them. This Is Now!

Artists For Humanity, Boston’s award winning teen art and design enterprise celebrating 30 years of bridging economic, racial, and social divisions by introducing young people’s creativity to the business community, teamed with Masary Studios and 42 Degrees North Media to produce this three-night event.

When/Where:

Friday, October 23: Uphams Corner @ The Strand Theater, 543 Columbia Road (Wilbur St. side of theater), 7:30-9PM
Saturday October 24: Nubian Square @Haley House Bakery Café, 12 Dade St. 7.30-9PM
Sunday, October 25: Jamaica Plain @ J.P. Licks, 659 Centre Street 7.30-9PM
