

Update regarding Sexual Harassment training required for non-supervisory employees.

- a. SB 778 continues to sail through the California Legislature.
- b. The bill would extend the deadline for employers to train non-supervisory employees on sexual harassment, from 1-1-2020, to 1-1-2021.
- c. The bill is in its final stages, and if it passes; will give significant relief to employers on this training issue.
- d. CALPASC will keep updating membership on this issue.
- e. CALPASC is preparing an efficient program for members to provide this training, but will hold off implementing if the deadline is extended.
- f. Remember, the requirements for supervisor training are not changed in any way.