MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT:
Youth Ministry at St. Martin's

This morning we give such thanks for our youth at St. Martin's and our youth ministries. Our youth are such an integral part of our church family, and they have really stepped up to the plate with robust attendance and participation in the life of St. Martin's. Youth are active in worship, Christian formation, and outreach ministries. Many thanks to all of our youth leaders for all of the ways they support our young people in their journey to grow in Christ!

And a very special thank you to Gus Bachmann and Tayler Boteler who deliver the sermon at the 10:30 a.m. service. We are blessed by their wisdom, insights and their ministry in preaching the Good News of the gospel. Thank you Gus and Taylor!

All youth in Grades 6 through 12, SMES students, and their friends are most invited to participate in St. Martin's youth ministries. If you or your young person would like to get involved or get more involved, please contact Rev. Nathan.

DISTRIBUTION OF HOLY COMMUNION

Please come forward to the altar rail, filling in from the center aisle outward, at the direction of the ushers. ALL are most invited to come forward to the altar rail at the time of Holy Communion at St. Martin's. If for any reason, you cannot or choose not to receive, please fold your arms over your chest to receive a blessing from the clergy. If after receiving the bread, you do not desire to receive from the common cup, please cross your arms over your chest and remain at the altar rail until other communicants have received.

The Bishop of Maryland has discontinued the practice of intinction or dipping the bread in the cup. In the Anglican Tradition, the fullness of Christ is present, even when receiving only in one kind with either the Bread or Wine. Gluten-Free wafers are available, please proceed to the gluten-free communion station on the far-left side of the altar rail.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

BCP p. 225

The Lord be with you. And also with you. Let us pray.

A READING FROM THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

Acts 16:9-15

During the night Paul had a vision: there stood a man of Macedonia pleading with him and saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." When he had seen the vision, we immediately tried to cross over to Macedonia, being convinced that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them.

We set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis, and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city for some days. On the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there. A certain woman named Lydia, a worshiper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul. When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home." And she prevailed upon us.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

PSALM 67

BCP p. 675

¹ May God be merciful to us and bless us, show us the light of his countenance and come to us.

² Let your ways be known upon earth, your saving health among all nations.

³ Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you.

⁴ Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you judge the peoples with equity and guide all the nations upon earth.

⁵ Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you.

⁶ The earth has brought forth her increase; may God, our own God, give us his blessing.

⁷ May God give us his blessing, and may all the ends of the earth stand in awe of him.

The Gloria, short for "gloria in excelsis," is our hymn of thanks and praise to God that focuses on the redemption of the world by Christ's death and resurrection, especially appropriate for the Great 50 Days of Easter.

The Collect of the Day "collects" our individual thoughts into unified prayer that we might respond to the lessons we are about to hear.

A READING FROM THE REVELATION TO JOHN

21:10, 22-22:5

In the spirit the angel carried me away to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God.

I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb. The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. Its gates will never be shut by day-- and there will be no night there. People will bring into it the glory and the honor of the nations. But nothing unclean will enter it, nor anyone who practices abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. Nothing accursed will be found there any more. But the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him; they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. And there will be no more night; they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign forever and ever.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

CHILDREN'S CHAPEL

As we sing the Sequence Hymn all children are invited to gather in the back of the church with the Children's Chapel adult leaders. Children's Chapel is located in the Parish Hall. The children will rejoin their parents during the Peace.

SEQUENCE HYMN: O spirit of life, o spirit of God

H 505, v. 3 & 4

THE HOLY GOSPEL

14:23-29

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John. Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to Judas (not Iscariot), "Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; and the word that you hear is not mine, but is from the Father who sent me.

"I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid. You heard me say to you, 'I am going away, and I am coming to you.' If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you this before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Christ.

SERMON

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE—FORM III

BCP p. 387

In our parish family long term prayers are requested for: Richard, Christy, Ethan, Deryn, Jasper, Donald, George, Eileen, Stephen, Alison, Dwayne, Jeff, Barbara, Jim, Matt, Tina, Kyle and Kenny.

The Nicene Creed is the most ancient and important corporate confession of our faith. We are joining ourselves to the great heritage of the holy (of God) catholic (universal) and apostolic (witnessing to the resurrection) church down through the centuries.

The Prayers of the People remind us that in our worship we are connected to a larger fellowship - the Church - the Body of Christ, on whose heart lies the cares and concerns of the world.

THE PEACE

Exchange a sign of God's Peace with words of greeting, a fist or elbow bump, etc.; handshakes are discouraged at this time. Should you wish to refrain from physical contact during the Peace, simply give those around you the two-fingered "peace sign" as an easy way to communicate your preference.

SPAN OPPORTUNITIES FOR MAY

SPAN (Serving People Across Neighborhoods) has been serving our neighbors to help them through a critical or emergency situation such as hunger, utility turn-offs, court-ordered evictions, and prescription/medical needs. We at St Martin's want to continue supporting this mission. Thus, we now have a year round collection bin in the Narthex. Each month we will have a collection theme.

May's SPAN theme is food allergy awareness.

Please donate products that are allergy friendly. These are products that are specifically labeled as free from all or some of the top 9 common allergens (milk, wheat (gluten), tree nuts, peanuts, soy, fish, shellfish eggs, and sesame). Examples are gluten free pasta, gluten free cookies, gluten free crackers, brown and white rice, nut butter alternatives such as Sunbutter or Wowbutter, Enjoy Life brand foods, Made Good brand, Safe & Fair brand, Don't Go Nuts brand and Abe's just to name a few. Of course we're also happy to collect anything else you're willing to share. For more details about SPAN visit: https://www.spanhelps.org/support_us

The Outreach board wants to hear your opinions. As we come out of the pandemic, St. Martin's Outreach board is looking for ways to do more "hands on" outreach. Additionally, as we start developing a long-term outreach plan, we want to know where you think our financial outreach should go.

Please help us to understand where St. Martin's heart lies by taking 5 minutes to fill out a brief survey about hands on outreach and financial contributions at <https://forms.office.com/r/sjF8jXkEhd>. Survey will be live through June 5.
