

WE'RE HERE FOR YOU!

Books are ready for purchase

Dear Valued Customer,

We understand that many of you are facing uncertainty with potential school closings due to illnesses, weather conditions and unforeseen situations that disrupt learning. We at Summer Skills would like to be a part of the solution and remind you that our Summer Skills review books can be ordered online by parents and shipped directly to their home.

With our single subject books, mixed skills format and solution/help pages, we are confident that our books will help prevent students from falling behind and help them achieve their academic success. We continue to offer the same award-winning products, staff and customer service.

We are proud to announce that we have rolled back the price of our books to help our parents and schools. If you have any questions, please call us at 1-800-411-8186 we would love to talk to you!
