Sep 29 - Dec 30 Exhibition: Windbent, Waterworn by Artist Jennifer Lee

Inspired by the shifting prairies, waterways, and weathered landscapes of Iowa, this exhibition explores the ways land shapes both memory and material. Through slowly constructed ceramic vessels accented with driftwood, cord, and wire, each work reflects the movement of wind, the passage of water, and the resilience found in natural forms. 'Windbent, Waterworn' invite viewers to slow down and consider the quiet, enduring forces that shape the landscape around us.

Nov 06 - Feb 20 Exhibition: Environmental Concerns By Margaret Whiting

Witness the transformation of discarded law books into compelling works of art that explore environmental and social issues. Using the text, texture, and history of these volumes, she creates powerful narratives that encourage reflection on the laws and decisions shaping our world. Her innovative work invites viewers to consider humanity's relationship with the environment and the future we are creating together.

Dec 01 Mystery Book Club: The Boys from Biloxi

The Mystery Book Club meets on the first Tuesday of the month at 6:00 pm in the library. The Boys from Biloxi by John Grisham: For most of the last hundred years, Biloxi was known for its beaches, resorts, and seafood industry. But it had a darker side. It was also notorious for corruption and vice, everything from gambling, prostitution, bootleg liquor, and drugs to contract killings. The vice was controlled by small cabal of mobsters, many of them rumored to be members of the Dixie Mafia. Keith Rudy and Hugh Malco grew up in Biloxi in the sixties and were childhood friends, as well as Little League all-stars. But as teenagers, their lives took them in different directions. Keith's father became a legendary prosecutor, determined to "clean up the Coast." Hugh's father became the "Boss" of Biloxi's criminal underground. Keith went to law school and followed in his father's footsteps. Hugh preferred the nightlife and worked in his father's clubs. The two families were headed for a showdown—one that would ultimately happen in a courtroom.
