

FAIRFIELD CHAMBER OF COMMERCE 2020 Economic Outlook Breakfast

John Traynor, CIO People's United Wealth Management

John Traynor joined People's United Bank in 2011 and serves as EVP and Chief Investment Officer. John directs the overall investment process and has responsibility for the work of the various investment Committees. He serves as the chief spokesman for the People's United Wealth Management Group investment outlook through regular strategy briefings. He appears regularly on CNBC, Nightly Business Report and Fox Business News, as well as being quoted in the NY Times and Wall Street Journal.

Brenda Kupchick, First Selectwoman, Town of Fairfield

Brenda Kupchick is a proud third-generation Fairfielder who was the second female in the Town's 380-year history to be elected last November as First Selectwoman. Brenda's decades-long commitment to public service includes serving on the RTM and Board of Education, and was elected State Representative of the 132nd District for five terms. Brenda served on numerous legislative committees including Transportation, Finance, Revenue & Bonding, Housing, and Education. Brenda received the Humane Legislator of the year award from the Humane Society of the United States, and an award from Keep the Promise Coalition for her work on Mental Health. Prior to her time as a state legislator, Brenda served as Constituent Services Representative for U.S. Congressman Christopher Shays and for State Senator John McKinney. Brenda and her husband Peter have also owned and operated a local small business for over 30 years.
