

SPOTLIGHT: DIVISION OF HUMANITIES

Congratulations To The Division Of Humanities' Class Of 2020!

Latrice Johnson, B.A., English, native of Forest Park, OK, was accepted to six graduate programs (M.A. in English). She will attend the University of Mississippi.

Maria Thompson, B.A., English, a native of Jackson, MS, obtained acceptances from Howard University School of Law and the University of Mississippi School of Law.

Alexis Jones, B.A., Mass Communication (emphasis in Advertising and Public Relations) secured employment as Marketing Specialist with Jackson-based marketing company Fahrenheit Creative Group.

Makalah Hampton, B.A., Mass Communication (emphasis in Advertising) is one of the Class of 2020's co-valedictorians. She is accepted to an M.A. program in Media and Film Studies at Georgia State University.

Demonbre Stapleton, B.A., Mass Communication plans to attend the University of Mississippi School of Nursing.

Kriston Gordon, B.A., Music, a native of St. James, Jamaica, is one the Class of 2020's co-valedictorians. She is accepted to a Ph.D. program in ethnomusicology at Florida State University.

Andre Bennet, B.A., Music, a native of Mt. Salem, Jamaica, is accepted to an M.A. program in vocal performance at Louisiana State University.

Corron Hughes, B.A., Music, a native of Calumet Park, IL, is accepted to an M.A. program in Vocal Performance at the University of Mississippi.

“Rising To The Occasion”: Rising Seniors In Humanities

Destiny Dorsey, Scott Emerson, Jeremy McDuffy, Crystal Richmond and Anastasia Taylor will participate in an HBCU initiative and summer program at the University of California Santa Barbara.

Tougaloo's Newest UNCF Mellon-Mays Undergraduate Fellows

Timmy Bridgeman, Zannie Montgomery and Precious Thompson are The Eagle Queen's newest UNCF Mellon-Mays Fellows. They are added to an impressive roster of current Tougaloo students and graduates who have benefited from this fellowship, proceeded to reputable graduate programs and joined the professoriate. In addition, Montgomery will participate in Dartmouth College's Academic Summer Undergraduate Research Experience and Thompson will attend the 20th Annual Harvard Kennedy School of Public Policy Leadership Conference.