

Executives on Campus cordially invites you to

Mentor for a Morning

When: Thursday, March 12, 2020; 8:00am - 12:00pm

Where: NVC 14th Floor

Join us at Executives on Campus' Mentor for a Morning speed-networking event to meet with executives and top managers from varied industries throughout New York City. All currently enrolled Baruch College students are invited to participate. Mentors will meet with students for individual sessions targeting career-related topics including, but not limited to:

- Networking skills
- Industry trends
- Career changes
- Transitioning from a student to a professional
- Emerging fields

Mentor for a Morning consists of open networking from 8:00 - 8:30am, followed by three 45-minute individual mentoring sessions at 8:30, 9:30, and 10:30am. Only one session per student; students may choose which session(s) they are available to attend, but may not skip class to attend this event. Please be sure to check your email for additional steps to be considered for this program.
