Jesus said,

A musical manuscript page featuring ten staves of music. The music is written in a simple staff system with vertical stems and dots representing pitch and rhythm. The first staff begins with a double bar line and a double bar repeat sign. The second staff begins with a single bar line and a single bar repeat sign. The third staff begins with a single bar line and a single bar repeat sign. The fourth staff begins with a single bar line and a single bar repeat sign. The fifth staff begins with a single bar line and a single bar repeat sign. The sixth staff begins with a single bar line and a single bar repeat sign. The seventh staff begins with a single bar line and a single bar repeat sign. The eighth staff begins with a single bar line and a single bar repeat sign. The ninth staff begins with a single bar line and a single bar repeat sign. The tenth staff begins with a single bar line and a single bar repeat sign. The music consists of various note patterns, including eighth and sixteenth note groups, and rests. The page is set against a white background with a black border. In the top right corner, there is a portrait of a man with a beard and a mustache, wearing a yellow shirt. The portrait is drawn in a simple, sketchy style with brown lines and shading.
