

Spelling words for March 30 - April 3

Here are the words for the week - instead of putting them into sentences, you'll be given a couple of activities during the week so you can use them in games. Start today with filling the words into these blanks below. Look at the words and make a list of what the similarities are, as we would do in discussion during class.

Who - I'd like to know _____ at the last of the cookies!

Where - I'm just wondering _____ we should go camping?

Thought - I _____ it was supposed to be spring!

Truth - To tell you the _____, I really don't like the coronavirus.

Though - I like vanilla cupcakes, _____ I'd really eat any cake you gave me.

Children - How are all of the _____ doing today?

Length - It's fun to use a measuring tape to find out what _____ something is.

Those - May I please have one of _____ books to read?

They - It would be very nice if _____ joined us when we go to the beach!

Watch - Would you like to _____ the sunset with me?