Happy February

You may notice a change in our newsletter this month! In an effort to streamline our information, we'll be using this condensed format. Let us know what you think!

Last month we had a blast with a variety of Central Florida Arts Activities, as well as lots of music throughout the month. February we are looking forwards to football, Black History Month, Valentine's Day, President's Day and Mardi Gras! Most exciting of all is LEGENDS will be back to perform this month. We look forward to celebrating the holidays abundant in this short month.

We have no closures this month despite a number of holidays.
