Deadline to Apply for SBA Disaster Loans Fast Approaching

SACRAMENTO, Calif. – Director Tanya N. Garfield of the U.S. Small Business Administration’s Disaster Field Operations Center-West today reminded Colorado small nonfarm businesses of the deadline dates to apply for an SBA federal disaster loan for economic injury. These low-interest loans are to offset economic losses because of reduced revenues caused by drought in the following primary counties.

Declaration Number	Primary Counties	Neighboring Counties	Incident Type	Incident Date	Deadline
15722	Eagle, Grand, Jackson, Lake, Park, Routt and Summit	Boulder, Chaffee, Clear Creek, Fremont, Garfield, Gilpin, Jefferson, Larimer, Moffat, Pitkin, Rio Blanco and Teller in Colorado; Albany and Carbon in Wyoming	Drought	Beginning June 26, 2018	5/13/19
15733	Boulder and Larimer	Broomfield, Gilpin, Grand, Jackson, Jefferson and Weld in Colorado; Albany and Laramie in Wyoming	Drought	Beginning July 31, 2018	6/03/19

According to Garfield, small nonfarm businesses, small agricultural cooperatives, small businesses engaged in aquaculture and most private nonprofit organizations of any size may apply for Economic Injury Disaster Loans of up to $2 million to help meet working capital needs caused by the disasters. “Economic Injury Disaster Loans may be used to pay fixed debts, payroll, accounts payable and other bills that cannot be paid because of the disasters’ impact,” said Garfield.

“SBA eligibility covers both the economic impacts on businesses dependent on farmers and ranchers that have suffered agricultural production losses caused by the disasters and businesses directly impacted by the disasters. Economic injury assistance is available regardless of whether the applicant suffered any property damage,” Garfield added.

The interest rate is as low as 3.61 percent for businesses and 2.5 percent for private nonprofit organizations with terms up to 30 years. Loan amounts and terms are set by SBA and are based on each applicant’s financial condition.

By law, SBA makes Economic Injury Disaster Loans available when the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture designates an agricultural disaster. The Secretary declared declaration number 15722 on Sept. 12, 2018, and declaration number 15733 on Oct. 2, 2018.

Businesses primarily engaged in farming or ranching are not eligible for SBA disaster assistance. Agricultural enterprises should contact the Farm Services Agency about the U.S. Department of Agriculture assistance made available by the Secretary's declaration. However, in drought disasters nurseries are eligible for SBA disaster assistance.
