WORKSHOPS GROUP 1

- 1A Deacons and Pastoral Care
Sometimes forgotten as a step to becoming an Elder, the call for ordained Deacons may be more important than ever for the life of our churches, both inside the walls and outside the church as they live and grow in the community. We'll look at the Book of Order and share practical experiences to explore the rewards of being a Deacon.

Elder John Gingrich

All Day Workshops

- 1B "Compromiso de Servir"
Esta taller explora el compromiso a servir que debe guiar a todo/a anciano/a y diáconos y diaconisas. Como el desempeño de las funciones como ancianos/as y diáconos y diaconisas no sean una carga sino un verdadero ministerio de servicio.

Rev. Carmen M. Rosario

"Presentes para Adorarte"

Adorar a nuestro Dios en su máxima expresión es nuestro deber y compromiso como seguidores de Jesucristo. Este taller nos ayudara a tener un conocimiento más amplio de las partes del servicio de adoración en nuestra teología reformada al igual que formas creativas para darle todo honor y gloria a nuestro Creador.

Rev. Jennifer Rodriguez

- 1C Clerk of Session Training
Being a Clerk of Session, Before, During and After the meeting. Overview of the key elements and role responsibility of a Clerk of Session in a Presbyterian Church

Elder Warren McNeill

- 1D Criminal Justice Advocacy & Prison Ministry

Attendees will learn about ways they can advocate for Criminal Justice and people incarcerated in prison.

Elder Dave Ehlke
Elder Chibueze Okorie

- 1D Elders Workshop (Korean)
Responsibilities of the Elders in PCUSA.
Rev. Seung Ik Lee

WORKSHOPS GROUP 2

- 2A Why Does the Heart Want to Sing?"
Many congregations understand the power of music to define who they are as a community. There are some who choose hymns while others choose spirituals. There are those who want to hear gospel music and others who feel the Spirit in contemporary Christian worship songs. In this workshop, music and liturgy will be examined to see how music as a response to the Word can be shaped and formed. Music helps us anchor who we are and it also helps keep the doors of the church open for the stranger to have an encounter with Christ in new ways.

Rev. Derrick McQueen

- 2B The Call on Elders, CRE, Further Expressions of Leadership
Focus on familiarity with and implementing the Reformed tradition through Biblical and theological foundations that guide our polity and practice. We will also focus upon opportunities for Commissioned Lay Pastors as well as other specialized ministries needed by congregations which could be opened to those who have completed the program.

Rev. Jill Schaeffer
Elder Diana Bartelt

- 2C Listening to and Supporting our Immigrant Fellowships and New Worshipping Communities
We have 12 now in the Presbytery. This is a conversation with these leaders about what they started, what has helped, and what they seek to further develop these communities of faith.

Rev. Robert Foltz-Morrison

- 2D Presbyterian Church Polity 101
A new understanding of Presbyterian Polity for the 21st century.
Elder Warren McNeill

- 2E Deacons Workshop (Korean)
Deacons Responsibility in the PCUSA.
Elder Jung Park
Mental Health
Rev. Kum Ock Kim

WORKSHOP GROUP 3

- 3A Stewardship
This workshop will focus on the essential elements of an annual effective financial stewardship campaign in your congregation.
Rev. James Reese

- 3B The Drama of Worship
Who are the actors, audience, prompter, and stage hands? What is your role?
Rev. Kenneth Thomas

- 3C Staying Spiritually Alive for the Long Haul
Ministry proves challenging. We face multiple demands on our time and energy. Tasks loom large and intractable. What are some resources of our faith to help us cope with the stress of ministry and to keep going in response to Christ's call?
Re. Mark Koenig

- 3D Polity (Korean)
Understanding Presbyterian Polity.
Elder Chris Kim
