Welcoming Statement

At St Thomas' Episcopal Church, we affirm God's love for all of God's people. Whoever you are, wherever you are on your spiritual journey, and whatever your age, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity, religious background or social or economic circumstance or political affiliations, you are welcome here. We share a love of God and each other, a sense of meaning and belonging, a yearning to learn and grow in faith, and a desire to serve others. We are a vibrant, thriving community with opportunities for people of all ages for spiritual growth, fellowship, and making a transformative difference in our community. As an Episcopal Church, we are a worshipping community that is both rich with ancient tradition and relevant to life in the 21st century. We are glad you are here!

Learn More About St. Thomas

If you would like to learn more about St. Thomas, we invite you to visit our website (www.saintthomasdenver.org), subscribe to our weekly newsletter (link is on website), or schedule a conversation with our priest, terri@saintthomasdenver.org.

Inclusive Language:

At St. Thomas, we support and encourage the use of inclusive language. Towards that end we often choose more contemporary prayers and hymns for our worship service. However, we recognize that many parishioners also appreciate and love our traditional prayers and hymns that employ more patriarchal language. When such prayers or hymns are included in our worship, we encourage you to substitute the word or pronoun that most resonates with you when you pray or sing.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

A Reading from the Book of Exodus

Exodus 3:1-15

Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed. Then Moses said, "I must turn aside and look at this great sight, and see why the bush is not burned up." When the LORD saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, "Moses, Moses!" And he said, "Here I am." Then he said, "Come no closer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground." He said further, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Then the LORD said, "I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings, and I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. The cry of the Israelites has now come to me; I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them. So come, I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt."

But Moses said to God, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?" He said, "I will be with you; and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God on this mountain." But Moses said to God, "If I come to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your ancestors has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' what shall I say to them?" God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM." He said further, "Thus you shall say to the Israelites, 'I AM has sent me to you.'"

God also said to Moses, "Thus you shall say to the Israelites, 'The LORD, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you':

This is my name forever,
and this my title for all generations.

We give you thanks, O God, and call upon your Name; *
we make known your deeds among the peoples.

We sing to you; we sing your praise *
and speak of all your marvelous works.

We glory in your holy Name; *
let the hearts of those who seek you rejoice.

we continually seek your face.

We remember the marvels you have done, *
the wonders and the judgments of your mouth.

O children of Jacob, the chosen ones.

Israel came into Egypt, *
and Jacob became a sojourner in the land of Ham.

You made your people exceedingly fruitful; *
you made them stronger than their enemies;

Whose heart you turned, so that they hated your people, *
and dealt unjustly with your servants.

You sent Moses your servant, *
and Aaron whom you had chosen. Alleluia!

A Reading from the Letter to the Romans

Romans 12:9-21

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers.

Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." No, "if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads." Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

The Gospel

Matthew 16:21-28

Presider The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you." But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things."

Then Jesus told his disciples, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life?"

"For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

Dismissal Of Children for Godly Play Story

and your right say, 'Amen!'

Homily

Please sit.

Affirmation of Faith

Please stand.

We believe in the God of Life,
who creates and loves people,
who acts in history
and who promises never to leave us alone.

We believe in Jesus of Nazareth,
who is our brother,
who wants not to be idolized but to be followed.

We believe that we dwell in the presence of the Holy Spirit;
without her we are nothing;
filled with her we are able to become creative,
lively, and free.

We believe in the Church of Jesus Christ,
a community where we find companions and
courage for the struggles of life,
where we grow in our understanding of the faith,
through worship, prayer, nurture, and service.

We believe that God has a use for us in this time and place, that though we walk through the valley of the shadow of death, we are called to be instruments of God's peace.

We believe in living, hoping, laughing, and enjoying the good of the earth;

We believe that people can change, and God keeps pulling us to life and to a new world of joy
and peace. ~ Women's Uncommon Prayers

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider The Lord be with you.

People* And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People* We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People* It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Presider It is right indeed, ever living God, to give you thanks and praise through Christ your only Son. You are the source of all life and goodness; through your eternal Word you have created all things from the beginning. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing.

You made us in your image and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love.

And so, this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing (say):

Sanctus

Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly Lord, Lord God of Presider (continues)

Holy One, From the great Flaring Forth, You filled the universe with your energies of love. You seeded the emptiness with potentiality; from the kairos of holiness you created time. You brought forth on this fragile blue planet atmosphere, land, water, and finally, the wonder of life.

You gave consciousness to all life forms and from emerging creatures You fashioned a self-reflective mind, Made for Love: Humanity, to love and be loved.

You called us through time into the powers and subtleties of your love teaching us through our ancestors, the wisdom of justice, generosity, and self-sacrifice.

In the fullness of time, you sent Jesus, to show us The Eucharistic sacrifice Each of us may enter to imitate and transform into the very energies of your own cosmic love.

On the night before Jesus died, He offered this mystery.

He took bread, said the blessing, Broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, saying, "Take. Eat. This is my BODY which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

He took the cup of wine. And when he had given thanks, he gave it to them and said, "Drink this, all of you. This is my BLOOD of the new covenant which is shed for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

We remember the core of this mystery of our faith”

Christ has died.

Christ has risen.

Christ will come again.

And now we celebrate this mystery of transformation by eating this bread and drinking this wine, remembering Jesus’ incarnation, his life, his death, his resurrection, and his ascension.

We ask, Holy One, that you send your Spirit upon these gifts, that they may be for us the true body and blood of our Christ.

We ask, Holy One, that you send your Spirit upon us, that we may receive these gifts in your holiness, let this sacrament strengthen us for the work you send us out to do Bringing the energies of your Love into a beautiful but broken, suffering world.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, by him, with him, and in him, In the unity of Your Holy Spirit, we give ourselves to back to You, our Infinite God of Compassion, Mercy, and outpouring Love.

Amen
