

Young Professionals

Big Ideas.
Great Connections.

Organizational Statement

The Bowling Green Young Professionals encourages young talent in our community by engaging and empowering our next generation of business and community leaders to actively shape our region.

BGYP Demographics

Age Range: 21-40

Geographic Region: Bowling Green and South Central Kentucky

Professional Compilation: All professions included

Motivated By: Community involvement and leadership by growing membership, talent and entrepreneurship

BGYP Membership Benefits

- Expand professional and community networks
- Showcase talents through professional events and community engagement
- Utilize passions to enhance the community
- Develop both professionally and personally
- Sharpen and grow leadership skills
- Career-building connections through Chamber association

2016 BGYP Officers:

President, Jacqueline Rowe

Vice President, Katie Davenport

Secretary, Jenny Pyle

Social Committee, Lawson Laster Shannon Oleyar, Ian Loos

www.bgchamber.com

Find us on social media:

Bowling Green Young Professionals

BGYP

BGYoungPros

Quarterly Meetings

Tuesday, March 21

Speaker TBD

Tuesday, June 27

Ambassadors Round Table

Tuesday, September 12

Speaker TBD

Monday, December 4

Speaker TBD

Monthly Socials and Events

Thursday, March 16

St. Patrick's Day Social at 643

Saturday, March 18

JA Bowl for Kid's Sake

Saturday, April 1

WKU Red, White and Brew Fest

Thursday, May 4

Kentucky Derby Social at The Derby Piano & Dessert Bar

Thursday, July 20

BG Hot Rods Game

Thursday, August 17

Inside Look at White Squirrel Brewery

Thursday, September 21

Scavenger Hunt at Steamers Seafood

Thursday, October 26

Halloween Social at 440

Thursday, November 9

Friendsgiving Social at Eyeconic.TV

Monday, December 11

Ugly Christmas Sweater Party at Novo Dolce

Please note that all dates are tentative and subject to change.

For additional information, contact

Katie Dykes, Director, Programs & Events, katie@bgchamber.com