Trinity Cathedral's local Episcopal Peace Fellowship group is sponsoring a Human Trafficking Book Reading and Lunch Gathering at the Hotspot Café, 1332 Carnegie! Scheduled date is Saturday, October 26 @ Noon. Stay tuned for updates. This particular book and discussion would be especially valuable for parents and young adults in every community in northeast Ohio. Check out your copy at the library or online and start reading about the second largest criminal industry in the world. (UNICEF)

Nita Belles is an author, a compelling keynote speaker, and a leading national expert in the anti-human trafficking movement. Her work has been featured by CNN, Fox Files, BBC, NPR, Focus on the Family, USA Today, the Huffington Post, and many others. She is known for her compassionate heart, for being a friend to survivors, and for working with other to find solutions when there is seemingly no hope. She is the founder and executive director of a nonprofit which shares the name In Our Backyard. You may see more about her organization at www.inourbackyard.org.

Contact Bruce Freeman (freeman.bruce@gmail.com) by Thursday, October 24 if you are planning to join us for lunch so we have a good numbers estimate in advance for the Café!
