

Fall Series at Saint Martin's 2018

Caregiving & Caring for the Caregiver

Wednesdays at 6:15 pm, beginning with a light dinner, followed by our guest speaker for the evening, then Q&A discussion

Meeting November 7, 14, 28 and December 5 in the Burroughs Room

November 7, Wednesday 6:15 pm — Speaker James W. Campbell, MD
Department Chair of Geriatric Medicine @ MetroHealth
What is Geriatric Medicine and When Do We Pursue It?

November 14, Wednesday 6:15 pm — Speaker Fatima Perkins, MNO, MSLIS, Director, Community Outreach & Advocacy
Western Reserve Area Agency on Aging (WRAAA)
Programs and Support Groups of WRAAA, and other resources for caregivers

November 28, Wednesday 6:15 pm — Speaker Lynn Hermensky, BS, Community Health Education
Provider Relations Manager, Hospice of the Western Reserve
Being a Caregiver: Steadfast or Stressed: Learn how planning ahead, using relaxation techniques and taking advantage of supportive services allow caregivers to experience the positive aspects of caregiving.

December 5, Wednesday 6:15 pm — Chaplains & Clergy
A group of chaplains, clergy and spiritual ministers will lead a colloquium on
The Role of Chaplains, Clergy and Spiritual Ministers in Caregiving

Saint Martin's Episcopal Church
6295 Chagrin River Road, Chagrin Falls, Ohio 44022
www.saintmartinschagrinfalls.com