NORMAN A. SUGARMAN CHILDREN'S BIOGRAPHY AWARD

Cleveland Public Library is proud to announce nationally recognized author and illustrator Ashley Bryan is the recipient of the 2020 Norman A. Sugarman Children's Biography Award for his memoir, Infinite Hope: A Black Artist's Journey from World War II to Peace.

Published by Simon and Schuster, Infinite Hope: A Black Artist's Journey from World War II to Peace is a touching picture book memoir about war seen through the eyes of an African American soldier. Bryan shares his experiences serving in the segregated army during World War II and how love and art sustained him. Bryan's memoir is considered both a lesson in history and a testament of hope.

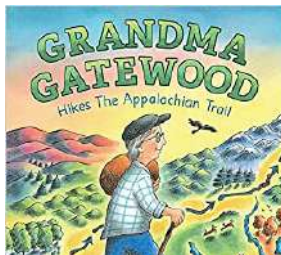

This event is free and open to the public. The awards ceremony will be held Thursday, September 24 at 7:30 p.m. via Zoom.

Additionally, three authors received Norman A. Sugarman Children's Biography Honor Awards:

Feed Your Mind: A Story of August Wilson
by Jen Bryant

August Wilson was a two-time Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright who had a talent for capturing the authentic, everyday voice of Black Americans. Like many of his plays, Feed Your Mind is told in two acts, revealing how Wilson grew up to be one of the most influential American playwrights.

Grandma Gatewood Hikes the Appalachian Trail
by Jennifer Thermes

Emma Gatewood's life as a mother of 11 kids in rural Ohio was far from easy. One day, at age 67, she decided to go for a nice long walk...and ended up completing the Appalachian Trail. A story of grit and girl power at any age, Grandma Gatewood proves that no peak is insurmountable.

Library on Wheels: Mary Lemist Titcomb and America's First Bookmobile
by Sharlee Glenn

As a librarian in Maryland, Mary Lemist Titcomb was always looking for ways to improve access to library resources. She set about to change the library system forever with the introduction of book-deposit stations, a children's room, and her most revolutionary idea of all—a horse-drawn book wagon.

#CLEReads YA Book Festival

#CLEReads Young Adult (YA) Book Festival returns with live panel discussions featuring notable YA authors including those listed below and many more! #CLEReads YA Book Festival is presented in partnership with College Now. Space is limited and registration is required.

DR. IBRAM X. KENDI

Dr. Ibram X. Kendi is one of America's foremost historians and leading antiracist voices. He is a National Book Award-winner and his book Stamped: Racism, Antiracism, and You is a #1 New York Times bestseller. Kendi is the Andrew W. Mellon Professor in the Humanities and the Founding Director of the Boston University Center for Antiracist Research.

KIM JOHNSON

Kim Johnson is a college administrator who maintains civic engagement throughout the community while also mentoring Black student activists and leaders. Her debut novel, This is My America, explores racial injustice against innocent Black men who are criminally sentenced and the families left behind to pick up the pieces. Ms. Johnson holds degrees from the University of Oregon and the University of Maryland, College Park.

ABID KHORRAM

Adib Khorram is the author of Darius the Great Is Not Okay, which earned the William C. Morris Debut Award, the Asian/Pacific American Award for Young Adult Literature, and a Boston Globe–Horn Book Honor, as well as a multitude of other honors and accolades. He recently release the sequel, Darius the Great Deserves Better, was released August 25. When he isn't writing, Mr. Khorram is fixing other people's PowerPoints, learning to do a Lutz jump, practicing his handstands, or stepping a cup of oolong.

8th ANNUAL MAKER FAIRE CLEVELAND

Maker Faire is a gathering of fascinating, curious people who enjoy learning and who love sharing what they can do. From engineers to artists to scientists to crafters, Maker Faire is a venue for these "makers" to demonstrate hobbies, experiments, and projects. It's a family-friendly showcase of invention, ingenuity, creativity, resourcefulness, and just plain fun! This year's event will be held virtually. Stay tuned for a call for makers. Event updates and schedule coming soon!
