

AMY'S EXCLUSIVE CHECKLIST

The ONLY Pieces You Need for Fall

Stop the guessing and buy these items now.

- ✓ Your tops are officially the most important work wardrobe item you own in the new Zoom frontier. Start with the foundation of your capsule collection. You NEED at least one black and one white blouse, the style is up to you.
- ✓ Time to add in the fun by showcasing your personality with color and patterned blouses. You can only wear them so much before your co-workers question your closet, so 4-5 are a necessary amount.
- ✓ Yes, you need pants even in this waist-up world. The good news is that 1 good pair will suffice. Make it a stretch waist pull-on style, a button waist is so last year (literally). Basic, black ankle length is the name of the game.
- ✓ You still want to feel like YOU so say yes to jewelry. It not only shows off your personality, but it should (and will) make you happy to put it on. Choose delicate pieces that do not overpower you.
- ✓ Shoes are still part of your world even if you aren't leaving the house that much. All you need is one dressy pair of sneakers and black ankle booties. These 2 pairs of shoes will easily get you through the fall season (stylishly).
