

Individual School-Selected Student Poster Submission Guidelines

The Individual School-Selected Student Poster Submission Deadline is Monday, November 9, 2020 at 11:59 PM Eastern time

Description of the 33rd Annual Scientific Sessions:

The Eastern Nursing Research Society is pleased to accept abstracts to be considered for presentation at the ENRS 33rd Annual Scientific Sessions. This year's theme is "Generating Nursing Science to Meet the Needs of a Diverse Society".

The 33rd Annual Scientific Sessions appeal to all individuals interested in advancing nursing science, including nurse researchers, leaders in evidence-based practice, and dedicated nursing science students and faculty.

2021 Conference Objectives:

- Explore innovative programs of nursing research that have made significant contributions in advancing the health of diverse populations.
- General creative strategies for dissemination and translation of nursing science that promotes diversity, health equity, and inclusion into policy and/or practice.
- Examine the impact of leading theoretical and methodological perspectives to transform nursing science to meet the needs of a diverse society, including dissemination of nursing science into practice.

General Information:

ENRS is offering individual member schools the opportunity to select students who are lead authors to share emerging scholarship by presenting a poster at the 33rd Annual Scientific Sessions.

Individual schools are invited to select these student poster abstracts for submission using the guidelines specified below. These school-selected student posters will be peer-reviewed by the Awards Committee for consideration for awards in their respective category.

Please note: It is the responsibility of each university/college/school, and not the students, to select the poster abstracts. Once selected by their school, the lead student author should submit their abstract in the online system.

*There is no fee for submitting these abstracts.

Each university/college/school is invited to submit a maximum of:

- One (1) abstract representing project work of BS students
- One (1) abstract representing project work of MS students
- One (1) abstract representing the project of DNP students*
- One (1) abstract representing the dissertation topic of early PhD students who have not yet defended their proposal*

An institution that has either a DNP program OR a PhD program, but not both, may submit a maximum of two (2) abstracts for that respective category.*

Research Status: The abstract submission will be classified as either “completed research” or “ongoing research” for each school-selected student poster.

ENRS Membership: The lead authors of all school-selected student poster presentations must be members of ENRS. Contributing authors/presenters are encouraged, but not required to be ENRS members. Online and downloadable ENRS membership applications are available at <http://www.enrs-go.org> and must be submitted and accepted prior to the abstract submission deadline.

All presenters are required to be paid registrants for the ENRS Conference.

Abstract Layout:

Presentation Type: School-selected poster presentations will be ‘Poster’ only.

Poster Types: Please note each submission for the individual school-selected student posters must be in one (1) of the following categories: BS, MS, DNP, and Early PhD. Students are welcome to submit their poster to the general peer-reviewed submission, but if accepted are only invited to present in one session, i.e., the school-selected student poster OR peer-reviewed poster session.
