

Young at Art Creativity Camps Teaching Agreement

Steamboat Creates agrees to host _____ (class title) for a five day creativity class. The class will begin on _____ (month/day/year) and end on _____ (month/day/year), and will be held from _____ to _____ each day. All YAA teachers are required to be onsite for morning classes from 8am-12:30pm and/or from 1pm - 5pm for afternoon classes (this includes a 1/2 hour before class starts and 1/2 hour after class concludes).

_____ (your name) agrees to attend the class on the above described days and hours and provide students with instructions, exercises and critiques. If, for reasons such as illness or accident, _____ (your name) is unable to attend the workshop, he/she will notify the SSAC in a timely manner, and will relinquish all monetary compensation.

Steamboat Creates agrees to provide compensation for _____ (your name) for the five day workshop in the amount of 50% of all registration fees, including scholarships. Teacher payment will be made within 30 days of class conclusion and sooner if possible. We will provide a high school intern and paraprofessionals for any special needs students.

Additionally, each student attending the workshop may be assessed a materials fee. Source your materials from Create Space Art Pantry so we can keep our class fees affordable. Create a bin with your class name on it with supplies you will need for your camp.

Steamboat Creates is responsible for collecting the registration fee of $140-$180 per student (most classes are $140/pp with exceptions for off-site and/or advanced classes).
