

Congratulations to all our graduates of 2021!

The following members of our congregation have graduated from High School

Zach Daudet graduated from Clairemont High School and will attend Regis University in Denver Colorado to study business and play baseball.

David Hetter graduated from Patrick Henry High School and will attend San Diego State University in the fall.

Ryan Odom graduated from Madison High School

Charleena Owens graduated from Madison High School and will attend Mesa College in the fall.

Adelaide Sorbo graduated from Mountain Valley Academy and will attend Texas A&M to major in Biomedical Engineering.

Nicole Vassar graduated from Scripps Ranch High School and will attend University of California San Diego in the fall.

The following members of our congregation have graduated from College

Madeline Herbold graduated from San Diego State University with a BS in Biology with an emphasis on Ecology.

J. Rob Handley graduated from Jacksonville University with a Doctorate in Business Administration.

The following members of our congregation have relatives who have graduated from High School or College

Julie Jean Appleby, granddaughter of Dorothy Appleby, graduated from the University of Tasmania, Australia with an Master's degree in Applied Science and begins a job in Japan this month.

Samuel Bilby, son of Rev. Tamara Walker, graduated from Mission Bay High School and will attend Mesa College in the fall.

Kamille Anastasia Roese, granddaughter of John and Jan Roese of Irvine, graduated from the University of California, Riverside, with a BS in Psychology.

Pauline Ofa-He-Lotu Tamale, niece of Vika Tuuholoaki, graduated from California State University, Northridge, with a MA in Music Performance. She will attend University of Nevada, Las Vegas in the fall to pursue a Doctoral degree in Music Art and Vocal Arts.