

August 12, 2020

Dean's Hour: Dreams Deferred Amongst Racial Covenants: The US Supreme Court Case Which Inspired Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun

With the NCBA Diversity and Inclusion Committee

12:30-1:30PM

1 credit in diversity, inclusion and elimination of bias

Program presented by Rudy Carmenaty, Vice-Chair, NCBA Diversity and Inclusion Committee

Lorraine Hansberry's landmark play A Raisin in the Sun finds its origin in a landmark US Supreme Court case Hansberry v Lee. The story depicted on stage was derived from a lawsuit by the author's father challenging racially discriminatory housing practices in 1930's Chicago. The beauty and power of the play lies in its authenticity, an authenticity born of the American legal system.

Zoom details and forms to follow in future NCBA e-blast. Credit is free to NCBA members and $35 for non-members.