

Dean's Hour: Investors Beware: Preparing for Securities Fraud Cases Post COVID-19

May 19, 2020

3:00 PM

1 credit in professional practice or skills

Speaker: Anthony Michael Sabino, Esq., Associate Dean, Nassau Academy of Law

As Americans pick up the pieces from the health crisis, many are confronted with lost income, shrunken investments, and damaged businesses. Many will be desperate to restore their finances as quickly as possible. This makes them especially vulnerable to investment scams and securities fraud.

In anticipation of the next financial crisis, attorneys need to be prepared to both caution clients about potential scams, and litigate or arbitrate claims for securities fraud. This program is designed to inculcate all attorneys, be they young or veterans, litigators or general practitioners with the fundamentals of recognizing claims, causes of action, and how to prosecute those claims in court or an arbitral forum.

1 credit in professional practice or skills

Seminar material and CLE forms will be available on our website on the day of the programs. Attendees must fill out the forms in their entirety and email them to academy@nassaubar.org to receive credit.

Attendees will hear a code that they must include on their CLE form. This program will qualify for skills credits for newly admitted attorneys as there is the opportunity to ask questions of the presenters. Newly admitted attorneys must make note in email to us that they wish to receive skills credits for this program.