

Dean's Hour: How to Keep Your Practice Afloat During Times of Crisis

April 30, 2020
12:30-1:30 PM

The pandemic has impacted us all in one form or another – so use this disruption as a tool to switch gears and keep your practice afloat, as well as plan for future emergencies. Leslie H. Tayne, Esq., a consumer and business debt attorney of over 20 years, will teach you how to strengthen your firm and increase your resilience during these times of uncertainty. From assessing attorney and staff compensation to managing the effect on business and cash flow, stay proactive and save the date for this presentation. Pre-registration not required.

1 credit in professional practice or skills

This program is presented by Leslie H. Tayne, Esq.

Seminar material and CLE forms will be available on our website on the day of the programs.

Attendees must fill out the forms in their entirety and email them to academy@nassaubar.org to receive credit.

Attendees will hear a code that they must include on their CLE form.

This program will qualify for skills credits for newly admitted attorneys as there is the opportunity to ask questions of the presenters.

Newly admitted attorneys must make note in email to us that they wish to receive skills credits for this program.