

New Mexico State Bar Foundation
Modest Means Helpline

THE NEW MEXICO STATE BAR FOUNDATION'S MODEST MEANS HELPLINE

Offers Free High-Quality Legal Help to Underserved New Mexicans

Albuquerque, N.M., March 14, 2025— The New Mexico State Bar Foundation's ("Bar Foundation") Modest Means Helpline is currently open for callers in need of legal support and assistance. Serving New Mexicans with incomes below 500% of the federal poverty guidelines, the Modest Means Helpline is committed to the underrepresented in New Mexico. New Mexican residents can reach the Modest Means Helpline at 505-797-6013 or 888-857-9935. Phone lines are open Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. (MT).

Established in Oct. 2022, the Modest Means Helpline is now in its third year of service. Having benefitted over 15,400 New Mexican residents to date, the Modest Means Helpline is a testament to the Bar Foundation's commitment to supporting New Mexico residents.

For more information about the Modest Means Helpline and its services, please visit www.sbnm.org/MMH or call the helpline at 505-797-6013 or 888-857-9935.