ESTATE PLANNING 101

A VAP CLE ECHO Special Service Project

This presentation will cover what documents an estate plan needs to include and how to prepare a basic will and the statutory powers of attorney.

Tuesday, January 27, 2026
3:30-5:00 p.m.
Via Zoom
1.0 General CLE Credit

About the Presenter:

Judge Cristy Carbón-Gaul is originally from Omaha, Nebraska. She completed her law degree at Creighton University School of Law and practices primarily in the areas of estate planning, probate, guardianship, and conservatorships. Her estate planning practice includes both simple and tax-planned estates, as she has developed expertise in estate planning for unmarried couples and regularly assists local business owners in New Mexico with succession planning. Judge Carbón-Gaul has served hundreds of individuals and couples to ensure that they have appropriate Estate Planning documents.

ONE CLE. ONE CLIENT. REAL IMPACT.

As part of VAP's mission to expand access to justice, this CLE includes a pro bono pledge. Participants agree to prepare at least one estate planning document within the next year for a low-income client referred by NMLA's VAP.
