

Your Voice

in the Bar Bulletin

Share Your Insights. Strengthen Our Community.

Have an idea, experience or perspective worth sharing with New Mexico's legal community?

The Bar Bulletin invites attorneys of all backgrounds and experience levels to contribute thoughtful articles on topics shaping the profession - whether they explore evolving case law, ethical considerations or reflections on practice and service.

Selected articles will be published in the Bar Bulletin and may be featured on the State Bar of New Mexico's social media platforms.

To recognize outstanding writing and encourage participation, the authors of the best-written articles will receive a monetary honorarium of $300 and special acknowledgment in the publication!

Articles must be submitted by March 31, 2026 for consideration.

Visit sbnm.org/Submit-An-Article to learn how to submit your article.

All submissions must be approved by the Communications Advisory Committee prior to publication and may be edited. The State Bar of New Mexico reserves the right not to publish a submission. Decisions regarding editing and publication are within the discretion of the State Bar of New Mexico.

Questions may be directed to brandon.mcintyre@sbnm.org.

State Bar of New Mexico
Est. 1886