

City of Albuquerque Assistant City Attorney

The City of Albuquerque Legal Department is seeking Assistant City Attorneys to join both the Land Use and Enforcement (“LUE”) division and the Department of Municipal Development (“DMD”).

- The LUE division advises numerous departments as they enforce a wide range of the City’s ordinances, including ordinances concerning housing standards, nuisance abatement, and animal treatment. In addition to advising departments, the LUE division represents the City in administrative hearings, in criminal prosecutions in Metro Court, and in civil matters in District Court. Responsibilities will include advising clients, boards, and commissions, drafting legal memoranda, and representing the City in administrative, criminal, and civil matters.
- Want to work with the team voted the “Outstanding Public Owner” of the year? The City of Albuquerque is seeking an attorney to provide general counsel services to the City’s Department of Municipal Development (“DMD”), which oversees the construction and renovation of City facilities and maintenance of City streets. In addition to contract review, the attorney will be responsible for providing advice on a broad range of issues related to the construction of public works. The position provides the opportunity to develop expertise in construction law while helping the City provide much-needed resources.

Attention to detail and strong writing and interpersonal skills are essential. Salary based upon experience. Hybrid in person/remote work schedule available. For more information or to apply please send a resume and writing sample to Angela Aragon at amaragon@cabq.gov.
