Dear Family and Civil Law Attorneys:

We need your help!
On March 28, 2025, New Mexico Legal Aid's Volunteer Attorney Program and the Second Judicial Pro Bono Committee are hosting the First Law-La-Palooza of 2025!

All legal consultations will take place in-person at the Dennis Chavez Community Center located at 715 Kathryn Ave. SE, Albuquerque, NM 87102.
Consultations will be on a first come, first served basis.

This fair is divided into two sections. Family law consultations will be from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. and Civil law consultations will be from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. You can choose to sign up for the entire event from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. or just for the portion that corresponds with your area of expertise. Lunch will be provided!

We are not asking you to take on cases for full or partial representation.

The Access to Justice Commission provides malpractice insurance to volunteers for all consultations with pro bono clients during the designated hours for the legal fair.

You can earn up to two hours of CLE credit for volunteering at this event!
(1 Self-Study credit for every 3 hours of volunteer services rendered)

If you have any questions, please contact Andoe Arathoon, Statewide Pro Bono Coordinator at Andoea@nmlegalaid.org.

We greatly appreciate your time in providing low-income New Mexicans with free one-time consultations.

Sincerely,

Andoe Arathoon
