Various Assistant City Attorney Positions

The City of Albuquerque Legal Department is hiring for various Assistant City Attorney positions. The Legal Department's attorneys provide a broad range of legal services to the City and represent it in legal proceedings in court and before state, federal and administrative bodies. The City is currently looking for an attorney to represent the City in civil litigation. This may include assisting in complex matters currently pending or representing the City in claims brought against the Albuquerque Police Department. The City is also looking for attorneys to handle code enforcement hearings and land use decision appeals, to provide legal services to the City's Department of Municipal Development ("DMD"), to provide advice on labor issues and handle employment claims. Attention to detail and strong writing and interpersonal skills are essential. Preferences include: experience with litigation, contract drafting and review, government agencies, government compliance, and policy writing. Salary based upon experience. Hybrid in person/remote work schedule available. For more information or to apply please send a resume and writing sample to Angela Aragon at amaragon@cabq.gov.
