

JOYS AND CONCERNS

November 22, 2020

If you or someone you know has a life situation you would like the pastors or the congregation to be aware of, please call the church at 303-798-1845.

May the God of Hope fill you all with joy and peace as you trust in him so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit. ROMANS 15:13

JOYS:

We are thankful for cooler weather as the fires in our state are reported 70% contained and more.

CONCERNS:

Continued Prayers for all the firefighters battling the fires in California and other states.

Prayers for good health, strength and patience for our families and communities in Colorado, the U.S., and the World as we deal with COVID-19. Please pray for wisdom for our leaders, medical personnel, and researchers as they search for ways to contain the virus and to develop a treatment and vaccine.

Also, please pray for the paramedics, doctors, nurses and all those who are on the front line of service during the COVID-19 pandemic. Also prayers that the recent rise in the pandemic will subside.

There are other unnamed members and friends of CUC who have requested prayers as they deal with illness, grief, unemployment, financial challenges, significant concerns, addiction and anger management. Please keep them in your prayers as well as our military and those who serve our country around the world. We invite you to participate in caring for the following members of our CUC family who would appreciate your prayers, cards or emails. Addresses and email addresses are listed in the church directory or can be obtained by calling the church office at 303-798-1845.
