On February 5, 2019 the ACLU sent a letter to city leaders that stated:

“WE,...DEMAND FOR THE METROPOLITAN DIVISION TO BE MOVED OUT OF SOUTH LOS ANGELES.”

– HECTOR VILLAGRA, ACLU SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Since that time,
South Los Angeles
has experienced a surge in gun violence, shootings and killings.

MURDER OF NIPSEY HUSSLE WAS PART OF WEEK-LONG SURGE OF DEADLY SOUTH LA VIOLENCE

In the last week of March, 26 people across South LA were shot, according to Los Angeles police Chief Michel Moore.
Ten of those people have died.

APRIL 1, 2019

“WE HAD SEEN A RECENT INCREASE IN SHOOTING VIOLENCE IN SOUTH
LOS ANGELES, IN [THE 77TH STREET COMMUNITY POLICE STATION], AND PARTICULARLY IMPACTING AFRICAN AMERICAN MEN.”

– LAPD Chief Michel Moore*
