

March 7, 2022, Issue 9

Happy Women's History Month - Education

Education

SB377 continues to divide education professionals from legislators over the teaching of "divisive concepts." Teachers and students descended on the Capitol to voice opposition to the bill. Its sponsor, Sen. Bo Hatchett (R-50, Cornelia), promised a revised bill based on public comment.

SB226, the school library censorship bill, has made it halfway. It passed the Senate Committee on Judiciary.