

March 14, 2022, Issue 10

Legislative Session at Halfway Point

SB535 would forbid the use of federal dollars to build homeless shelters and imposes financial penalties on municipalities with high rates of homelessness. Proponents say it will help reduce homelessness; opponents wonder how to do that with no resources. More pointedly, opponents say that it criminalizes poverty. Rep. Josh McLaurin (D-51, Sandy Springs) called the idea "despicable."