Father Mark's Corner

One of the great joys of being a pastor comes during this time of year when (usually) we see our candidates and catechumens making their way through the Rites of Initiation toward the Vigil of Easter where they are received and enter the sacramental life of the Church and the community of the faithful believers.

We have been lacking this witness these past two years which leaves me longing for the day when we will be able to celebrate joyfully the Lord's presence amid his people. The great joy comes as we come to journey with these faith seekers whose stories begin to unfold before us as they seek communion with us.

It is with great joy that I always ask them, "why?" Why have they chosen to become part of us: The Catholic Church or the parish of St. Luke? Often, the answer may be quite simple: "I have been missing something in my life."

Or "I want to learn more about God and his Church." Other times, it may be as profoundly simple as: "I felt welcome when I came to see." Or "Someone from my family or this community inspired me with their life."

Why are you here? What was your journey to get here? How are you continuing the journey in faith?

Take a moment and pray for all those who are journeying behind the scenes in our RCIA program and who will be brought into the Church this Easter: David, Saul, Jennifer, Jorge, Anthony and Elizabeth. May the Holy Spirit strengthen them by our own welcome and witness.

Continue the journey...

Spiritual Reflection: "If God is for us who can be against us?"

Lenten Prayer

*God of Compassion,
You alone know the depth of my pain.
You are aware of the people I have loved,
but who refused to love me in return.*

You were with me when those I trusted betrayed my faith in them.

*Only you can understand how words and actions have left me wounded and alone.
Heal me of my hurt.*

Allow me to break those chains of pain that bind me to my offenders.

*Through your strength, show me
how to forgive,
how to move forward,
how to live.
Amen.*

Sunday Readings

Second Sunday of Lent

Reading I

Gn 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18

God put Abraham to the test. He called to him, "Abraham!" "Here I am!" he replied. Then God said: "Take your son Isaac, your only one, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah. There you shall offer him up as a holocaust on a height that I will point out to you."

When they came to the place of which God had told him, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. Then he reached out and took the knife to slaughter his son. But the LORD's messenger called to him from heaven, "Abraham, Abraham!" "Here I am!" he answered.

"Do not lay your hand on the boy," said the messenger. "Do not do the least thing to him. I know now how devoted you are to God, since you did not withhold from me your own beloved son."

As Abraham looked about, he spied a ram caught by its horns in the thicket. So he went and took the ram and offered it up as a holocaust in place of his son.

Again the LORD's messenger called to Abraham from heaven and said: "I swear by myself, declares the LORD, that because you acted as you did in not withholding from me your beloved son, I will bless you abundantly and make your descendants as countless as the stars of the sky and the sands of the seashore; your descendants shall take possession of the gates of their enemies, and in your descendants all the nations of the earth shall find blessing—all this because you obeyed my command."

Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

116:10, 15, 16-17, 18-19

Response: (116:9) I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

I believed, even when I said, "I am greatly afflicted." Precious in the eyes of the LORD is the death of his faithful ones.

Response: I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

O LORD, I am your servant; I am your servant, the son of your handmaid; you have loosed my bonds. To you will I offer sacrifice of thanksgiving, and I will call upon the name of the LORD.

Response: I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

My vows to the LORD I will pay in the presence of all his people, In the courts of the house of the LORD, in your midst, O Jerusalem.

Response: I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

Reading II

Rom 8:31b-34

Brothers and sisters: If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him?

Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones? It is God who acquits us, who will condemn? Christ Jesus it is who died—or, rather, was raised—who also is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Verse Before the Gospel

Cf. Mt 17:5

From the shining cloud the Father's voice is heard: This is my beloved Son, listen to him.

Gospel

Mk 9:2-10

Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them.

Then Elijah appeared to them along with Moses, and they were conversing with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Rabbi, it is good that we are here!

Let us make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." He hardly knew what to say, they were so terrified. Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him."

Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them. As they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them not to relate what they had seen to anyone, except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what rising from the dead meant.

Response: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Through the centuries, Christians and Jews alike have found the Binding of Isaac one of the most difficult passages in the Bible. Even though God intervenes to save Isaac, the whole episode strikes some readers as cruel. However, Abraham, the ultimate man of faith, raises no objection, offers no resistance as he simply goes about preparing for the trip and the sacrifice. ``

Today's other readings might help us see that text differently. In Mark's description of the Transfiguration, Jesus' clothes become white and shining, and Moses and Elijah appear with him. Moses was the great liberator and lawgiver who led the Jews out of bondage in Egypt and into the wilderness, forming them into the people of Israel by giving them the Law he received from God. Elijah was among Israel's greatest prophets, so close to God that, at the end of his life, he was taken up into heaven by a fiery chariot. Together, Moses and Elijah represent the Law and the Prophets, the ultimate authority for the Jews in the conduct of their daily lives.

• SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN • DID YOU KNOW...

Holding adults to high standards

When you start to talk to your children about inappropriate touching and basic sexual abuse prevention safety rules, be mindful that children can easily be confused by even the best of any adult's intentions, which underscores why all adults have a responsibility to adhere to the highest of standards in their relationships with children.

Consider that another good reason to be involved in the activities your children participate in is that it allows you to get to know the adults who work regularly with them. That way, if your child brings a confusing scenario to you, you can more easily discuss the circumstances with your child and the adult involved, with the goal of working toward better behaviors. For more information, request a copy of the VIRTUS article "How to Talk Productively With an Adult about Inappropriate Behavior with a Child" at <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

LOVE AND GENEROSITY

The Law, the Prophets—and Jesus. For Paul, Jesus is someone quite different from the other two. The reading from his letter to the Romans is short, but rich in meaning. When Paul declares that God "did not spare his own Son," and when God praises Abraham "who did not withhold from me your own beloved son," it is the same Greek word for "spare" and "withhold." God's voice at the Transfiguration identifies Jesus as his "beloved Son"—the same way God refers to Isaac as Abraham's beloved son. Ultimately, God spares Isaac but not his own Son, whom he "handed over for us." Even if we are disturbed that God tested Abraham like this, Paul says we should be overwhelmingly grateful that God did for us what, in the end, he did not require of Abraham. Jesus, God's Son "handed over to us" in love and generosity, is already a sacrificial gift, signifying that God wants to give us "everything else along with him."

Today's Readings: Gn 22:1–2, 9a, 10–13, 15–18; Ps 116:10, 15, 16–17, 18–19; Rom 8:31b–34; Mk 9:2–10
