Scripture Reflection

Offerings to God from Our Heart

Calling His disciples to Himself, He said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For, they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."

How did the poor widow in the Gospel and in the first reading give away that for which they had to live? Those two widows were more generous, even with the little that they had, because they trusted more in the goodness and providence of God. Their poverty taught them to totally depend on God every day.

The widow in the first reading gave hers and her son's last food to Prophet Elijah because she believed in the word of the Lord told to her by the prophet.

And the widow in the Gospel put in two small coins and according to the Lord contributed all she had because she believed that God deserved her all. She also trusted that God who is the source of all blessings can never be outdone in generosity. She gave from her heart and not from her surplus.

Her generosity with what little she had demonstrates the spirit of freedom from anxiety and attachment to money. Her offering involved a true sacrifice from her. She is an example of the "poor in spirit" of the Beatitudes that Jesus said are blessed because the kingdom of heaven is theirs.

The story of these two widows teaches us three lessons: first, that nobody is so poor that the person has nothing to offer to

God. Even the poorest of all can give from the little that he or she has to God if that person believes that everything he or she has belonged to God and came from God.

Second, our offering to God should be a sincere expression of our gratitude to Him for His generous and gracious providence to us daily. Our offering to God should be done from the heart and not out of routine or obligation.

Third, when we give to God, it has to involve a sacrifice. In the words of St. Teresa of Calcutta, "you give until it hurts." Because according to her, love demands a sacrifice. And God showed His love for us when He gave us His only Son, Jesus.

He continues to do so at every Mass when He gives us His Only Son, Jesus in holy communion as we pray to Him, "give us this day our daily bread."

St. Ignatius of Loyola wrote a beautiful "suscipe" or offering prayer that we can pray every day to ask Jesus to teach us to be generous just like Him.

"Take, O Lord, and receive my entire liberty, my memory, my understanding and my whole will. All that I am and all that I possess You have given me: I surrender it all to You to be disposed of according to Your will. Give me only Your love and Your grace; with these I will be rich enough and will desire nothing more."

-Fr. Robert

Jesus observed how the crowd put money into the treasury.
Many rich people put in large sums.
A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents.

• SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN • DID YOU KNOW...

Use concrete visual rules to help children stay safe

Parents in a crowded place, like a playground or store, will often tell their children, "Stay where I can see you." While the parent understands that this means, "Stay close," a child does not necessarily understand the limit — when can a parent see or not see them?

A clearer direction would be to tell your child, "Stay where you can see me." This gives them the boundary — they must be able to see you no matter where they go. Now, your child can check in frequently, all while staying in eyesight. For more tips, request the VIRTUS article "Communication Tip No. 5: Stranger Danger," at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

AROUND TOWN

Christmas Boutique

The Italian Catholic Federation, Holy Angels Church, will host their annual Christmas Boutique on Sunday, Nov. 21. The boutique will be open 7:30 am-2:00 pm.

There will be a vast array of assorted items to choose from for your early Christmas shopping. Meatball and sausage sandwiches, drinks and a dessert table will also be available. Holy Angels is located at 370 Campus Drive, Arcadia.

Vocations Awareness Week

National Vocations Awareness Week is celebrated in the US this year the week of Nov. 7-13. It is dedicated to promoting vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life through prayer and education.

Let us also renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these particular vocations. Please ask Our Lord for more dedicated, holy priests, deacons, and consecrated men and women.

May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community, and respond generously to God's gift of vocation.

Those Who Lead the Many to Justice Shall be Like the Stars Forever.

MOVING TOWARD THE END OF HISTORY

This year, it seems the Lectionary's scriptures not only reinforce the Catholic tradition of November prayer for our beloved departed, but also join with nature's storms and the pandemic as well as humanity's violent disasters to remind us that we are moving inexorably toward the end of history, both the world's and our own.

Today's Old Testament reading prepares us for a fruitful hearing of the Gospel. The primary challenge set before us is an undoubted faith that prompts the total giving of self. That lesson is offered to us with an urgency matching November's eschatological motif: the End and the Judgment. Two widows are presented, the Old Testament's widow of Zarephath and the Gospel's widow of the temple. Both exemplify faith-filled people who quietly give what they cannot afford: their all, for the glory of God and in the service of others.

GREAT FAITH IS DEMANDED

We quickly come to admire the Old Testament widow whom Elijah asks for help. The Zarephath widow is carrying only "a couple of sticks," to cook her limited resources, "a handful of flour and a little oil," fulfilling her personal responsibility, "for myself and my son" (1 Kings 17:12). Elijah's request demands great faith and self-sacrifice of this poor widow, because providing such life-sustaining care to a "foreign" prophet puts the widow's survival and her son's at great risk: her religion is worshipping paganism's false idol, Baal; her king is father of Jezebel, now wife of Elijah's king Ahab.

Elijah is fleeing the death-threatening wrath of both Jezebel and Ahab, whom Elijah infuriated by declaring that God had decreed a drought to punish them for corrupting Israel with Jezebel's Baal-worship. Elijah makes the widow's risk explicit by promising that her flour and oil will not fail by power of "the Lord, the God of Israel (not her god, Baal!)" (17:14). Therefore, faith is demanded both of the one who gives, the widow, and of the one who asks, Elijah.

SELF-SACRIFICING GIFT

Today's Gospel episode takes place just after Jesus enters Jerusalem immediately before his Passion. Trustfully and with self-sacrifice, like Zarephath's widow and the widow whom Jesus sees at the temple, Jesus will give his all for our redemption. Thus Jesus emphasizes of the widow he sees that her gift is unreserved: "from her poverty, all she had, her whole livelihood" (Mark 12:44).

And, doubtlessly, Jesus saw himself and his self-giving in her and her self-giving. In Mark's next chapter Jesus predicts the downfall of this very temple. So the widow's unreserved giving from what she could not afford must have struck Jesus both as a victimization by others and, in the end, as a useless gift: the building controlled by the scribes' manipulation was destined for destruction. Her giving became a vivid prefiguring of his own victimization by others in the unreserved giving of his very life, which would seem to many a useless gift, for Jesus would die and be buried.

Only Jesus' true disciples—are we?—believe that, by his resurrection, Jesus has become the Cornerstone of the new building, the Church, that replaces that torn-down temple. Therefore, we are to make our own gift of self to God in our unceasing gift of self-sacrificing love to others until Jesus comes again. © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.
