Scripture Reflection

Let us celebrate the Holy Eucharist with all our heart, mind, and soul, thanking God for such a great and ineffable gift of Himself to us in Holy Communion.

Having celebrated many funeral Masses in my life as a priest and especially during this time of pandemic when the pain and sorrow of death afflicted people throughout the whole world, no funeral rite other than the Mass can provide so much consolation, hope, and peace to the bereaved families and friends of the deceased.

The Mass is the most powerful and most efficacious prayer we can offer to God for the eternal repose of the souls of all the faithful departed. Because the Mass is Jesus Incarnate once again. In the Mass, Jesus grants full remission of our sins and full pardon for all the temporal punishments incurred by our sins.

So, whenever we celebrate the Mass, whether it is the Mass for the Dead or an Ordinary Daily Mass, the whole heavenly host, the communion of saints is present (saints and angels in heaven, the souls in purgatory, and the pilgrim Church on earth) because we commemorate, we celebrate the Saving Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ who put an end to all our deaths.

We hear Jesus in the gospel saying to his disciples, “I am the Bread of Life. This is the Bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die. I am the Living Bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.”

This means that Jesus nourishes with His own Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity the eternal life of the soul, the new life of grace of the baptized who receives Him in Holy Communion. Jesus unites Himself to us bestowing on us all the riches of heaven, i. e. sanctifying grace, thereby making us living temples or tabernacles of the Most High God.

By doing so, God lives in us and so we live forever. And when we receive Jesus in Holy Communion, He also purifies us, forgives us from all our sins, and prepares us for that Eternal Holy Communion with Him in heaven.

That's why a saint once said: “If you want to know what heaven will be for you, think of your most devout and most beautiful experience of Holy Communion, then multiply that experience to eternity, and that will be heaven for you.”

Eternal Joy, Eternal Peace of which we have a foretaste here on earth with our frequent Holy Communion await us in the next life.

So, let us celebrate the Holy Eucharist with all our heart, mind, and soul, thanking God for such a great and ineffable gift of Himself to us in Holy Communion. -Fr. Robert

Mission Cooperative Collection

Each year we are asked to become more conscious of and more involved in the Mission Activity of the Catholic Church in the world through the Mission Co-op Program of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

NEXT WEEKEND, Aug. 14-15, Fr. Lourdu Xavier Jesudoss will join us during our Masses to share the Mission Appeal on behalf of the Catholic Diocese of Thanjavur, South India. The diocese consists of 96 parishes and 1,061 mission stations. Besides evangelization, the diocese runs many schools and some 38 homes for more than 2,000 children, as well as nursing homes and homes for the destitute. Contributions help fund these institutions.

While there are many needs, this year's appeal focuses on supporting ongoing Covid-related relief. The diocese intends to support efforts such as supplying sanitation kits and nutritional supplements for poor people, setting up post-Covid-19 treatment centers and Care Homes, among other initiatives, that will benefit about 960 families and 4,800 people.

To learn more about the Catholic Diocese of Thanjavur or to make a donation, visit <https://missionsla.org/1298-2/> (If you will be making a donation, select "St. Luke Church – Temple City" or type Group 1298. Envelopes are also in the pews. Please make checks payable to "St. Luke Church." Your generosity is appreciated. Thank you for your support.

I AM THE LIVING BREAD THAT CAME DOWN FROM HEAVEN; WHOEVER EATS THIS BREAD WILL LIVE FOREVER. JOHN 6:51

THE BREAD OF LIFE

Chapter 6 in John's Gospel is often referred to as the Bread of Life discourse, perhaps because this is where Jesus makes his strongest claims for being the bread that has come down from heaven, bringing eternal life for those who believe in him. This is one source of our belief in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. In the first reading, the prophet Elijah has come to the brink of despair, but an angel comes with food and tells him to eat, "else the journey will be too long for you." The Responsorial Psalm is from Psalm 34; from very early on, the Church has applied the line, "Taste and see how good the Lord is" to the Eucharist. The second reading describes an ideal Christian community characterized by mutual love and service, which is the greatest fruit of its eucharistic celebrations.

THE READINGS AT MASS DON'T ALWAYS SEEM TO FIT TOGETHER

On the greatest feasts and solemnities of the Church's liturgical year, the three readings are chosen to all apply to the theme or the event being celebrated. During Ordinary Time, however, only the Jewish scriptures/Old Testament selections are chosen to go with the Gospel. The second reading makes its way independently through the New Testament letters and often appears to have a very different message.

Today's readings, however, present us with that happy coincidence of a Sunday in Ordinary Time when all three readings are very much closely connected—a connection that we might describe as God's generosity in nurturing the people so that they can in turn "nourish" each other by their acts of service and charity.

BUT TODAY THEY DO

In John's Gospel, Jesus insists over and over that he is the bread of life; when he sees that some of his listeners find this hard to believe, he insists on it even more strongly. Note that centuries before the Christians celebrate Jesus as the Bread of Life in the Eucharist, the psalmist sings, "Taste and see how good the Lord is!"

John's Gospel contains no blessing of the Bread and Cup that the Church uses to consecrate the bread and wine. What John does have is Jesus washing the feet of the disciples and commanding them to wash each other's feet, which is to say, to serve each other without regard to station or rank. He also gives a long, prayerful discourse in which he gives the "new commandment" to love one another. Receiving Holy Communion is much more than a "me and Jesus" moment, although that is undoubtedly a precious encounter. Ultimately, our reception of the Bread of Life attains its fullness only in our mutual love and service in our communities and beyond.

God fed Elisha to strengthen him on his journey. God fed the Israelites with manna on their journey in the wilderness. Today, we receive from God the Bread of Life for strength in whatever journey we are on.

TODAY'S READINGS

Ephesians 4:30 — 5:2
John 6:41–51

COVID Resources for Financial Assistance

Many families and individuals have been hit hard by the COVID-19 pandemic. We have some resources that might help to alleviate some of the financial challenges created by this pandemic.

Renters and landlords have been impacted by the pandemic and many need help with unpaid or upcoming rent or utilities. Income eligible households who need financial assistance for unpaid rent and utilities may apply for help through the CA COVID-19 Rent Relief program. If you have experienced a financial hardship due to COVID-19, have past due rent or utilities, and have a household income that is not more than 80% of the area median income, you may be eligible to receive help to pay past due or future rent and utilities from the state of California. Qualifying renters and landlords are eligible for 100% of rent and utilities owed. You can verify eligibility immediately and apply, if qualified, by visiting Housing is Key at <https://housing.ca.gov/>, or by calling (833) 430-2122.

The Los Angeles County Temporary Eviction Moratorium, effective March 4, 2020, was extended through September 30, 2021. Under the County's Moratorium, tenants may not be evicted for COVID-19 related nonpayment of rent, failure to pay back rent under the terms of a repayment plan for rent accrued during the Moratorium, as well as no-fault reasons, nuisance, denying entry to a landlord, or unauthorized occupants or pets – if related to COVID-19. For more information, visit <https://dcba.lacounty.gov/noevictions/>.

If you are a senior behind on your rent or have been served with an eviction notice, you may be eligible for financial assistance. Learn about eligibility at Workforce Development Aging and Community Services (WDACS), <https://wdacs.lacounty.gov/>, or call (213) 610-1589 or e-mail APShomesafe@wdacs.lacounty.gov if you need immediate assistance.

The COVID-19 pandemic has brought overwhelming grief to many families who have lost a loved one due to the virus. Under the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act of 2021 and the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021, FEMA will provide financial assistance for COVID-19-related funeral expenses incurred after January 20, 2020. For those affected or anyone with questions, visit the FEMA website at <https://www.fema.gov/disasters/coronavirus/economic/funeral-assistance/faq>. Although applications are not accepted online, you can apply by phone through the dedicated FEMA toll-free hotline at (844) 684-6333.

*O God, come to my assistance; O Lord, make haste to help me!
You are my rescuer, my help; O Lord, do not delay.
Psalm 70 (69): 2, 6*

*Lord, have mercy on us;
Holy Mary, Comforter of the Afflicted, pray for us;
St. Joseph, Patron of the Dying, pray for us!*

• SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN • DID YOU KNOW...

The importance of being a good example

Parents often have an easier time enforcing rules if they are setting good examples for their children. When it comes to drinking, drug use, and other risky behaviors, it is not always enough to tell your children these behaviors are forbidden.

Parents should model the behavior they want to see. Drinking in moderation and abstaining from drug and nicotine teaches children about boundaries and responsible behaviors and reinforces the message that dangerous substances really are dangerous.
