

We are hiring a

Full Time Beer & Wine Buyer, Department Head

We continue to grow by leaps and bounds and need another department manager. Our ideal candidate will be an experienced grocery buyer with extensive craft beer industry knowledge and who has the desire to dig in and become an integral part of our 20 year-old co-op's, 30 employee team.

Duties will also include purchasing and management of our prepared foods for the Grab n'Go deli case, and pet food and care. This manager will do most of the shelf stocking for their department, which means that they will be physically able to consistently lift 50 pounds.

We are a fun and vibrant place to work! Located on the green, right in the historic village of lovely South Royalton, we are a member owned, full-service grocery store that specializes in offering local, healthy and often organic foods which we are proud to carry in every department.

This position boasts a competitive salary, health benefits, and employee discounts on all groceries which includes deep discounts on special orders.

Candidates, please email resumes to Adam Smith at soromarket@gmail.com.
We can't wait to meet our new department head!
