

Some news from around Louisiana

. . .

New Heights Therapy Center, Inc. in Folsom reports that in 2016 they served 85 participants weekly, their volunteers donated 3,640 hours, and they offered scholarships to 57% of their participants. This September is off to a great start-- their participants have been soaking up the wonderful weather while on Acadiana Therapeutic Riding Organization in Lafayette will soon start their Five Week Women's Personal Growth Through Equine Series. "The program pairs women with therapy horses and invites them to explore areas of mindfulness, self-reflection, and personal growth". ATRO is also ready to start their Fall Semester!

Gaitway Therapeutic Horsemanship located in the Baton Rouge area reports "We're off to a great start this fall! Our riders are so happy to be reunited with their ponies." September marked the Kick-Off of their 2017 Annual Membership Campaign.

Mark your calendars~ The 2018 LTRA - PATH Intl. Annual State Meeting will be January 27th through the 28th in Baton Rouge at the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine. The State Meeting is open to everyone—you don't have to be from Louisiana to join us for a great educational opportunity and a lot of fun! We hope to see you there!